Annual 64.2009(e) CPNI Certification for 2008

Attachment 1: Statement of CPNI Procedures

Metro Beeper, Inc. ("the Company"), a provider of paging service in Puerto Rico, hereby states its policies and procedures with respect to CPNI:

CPNI policy: The Company does not use, disclose, or permit access to CPNI, except as permitted by the Communications Act or the FCC's rules.

Marketing: The Company does not use, disclose or permit, and has never used, disclosed or permitted, access to CPNI for marketing purposes.

Opt-in/Opt-out Notifications: Because the Company does not use, disclose or permit access to CPNI for marketing purposes, the Company has not had a reason to use opt-in or opt-out procedures.

Telephone access to customer information: Each customer has a specific access code as well as an account number, in order to ensure positive identification. If this information is not provided to the operator in connection with a request for CPNI, the authorities and persons on the authorized contact list will be notified.

In-store access: A customer must present a valid photo ID matching the customer's account information.

Online access: There is no access to CPNI online.

Recordkeeping: Each subscriber fills out an electronic record when initiating an account and the electronic records are stored in a central server which restricts access via software. The record keeping software program is Manage More by Intellisoft, Inc., which was built specifically for paging companies and has built-in security safeguards. Records are maintained for at least one year.

Additional safeguards: Only three employees of the Company are authorized to access customer information, and the access of those persons is password protected. One of the three is the President of the Company. There is a confidentiality clause in the employee manual which prohibits employees from divulging or taking any customer information outside the office under any circumstances. The manual states that this rule will be strictly enforced and any violation will result in immediate employee termination.

Notifications of security breaches: As noted above, if a request for CPNI is not supported by both the customer's password and account number, the authorities and persons on the authorized contact list will be notified.
